

DECEMBER 10, 2012: GRASSLAND VILLAGE SPECIAL AREA PLAN PUBLIC OPEN HOUSE

Grassland is unique in that there are two separate and distinct commercial nodes in the community, noted in pink on the accompanying map, and both of these “nodes” will carry the "Village" zoning designation on January 1, 2013. As a result of this separation, the Study Area encompasses these two commercial areas and the surrounding parcels.

OPEN HOUSE PRESENTATION

This material was presented by Mike Matteson and Katy Rucker, members of Williamson County Planning Staff during the Open House. In an effort to cover not only the process of a Special Area Plan, including timeline and events, but also to understand why Grassland was selected for this process, the presentation aimed to answer the following questions:

How did we get here?

What does a Special Area Plan mean for Grassland?

What is the Special Area Plan process?

What is my role in the process?

A link to the presentation is available on the Meeting Notes page.
