

emergency kit

emergency kit

	radio: battery-powered		umbrella		dust mask to help filter contaminated air plastic sheeting and duct tape to shelter-in-place cash and coins		photocopies of credit and identification cards, insurance cards, and important papers		radio: hand crank		blanket water 3-day supply for drinking and sanitation, per person, per day		items for infants: formula, diapers, bottles, and pacifiers		spare clothes, with layers for different temperatures first aid kit		flashlight	what's essential for building a kit?	written or printed contact information, as a backup to phones		paper, pencil, and pen extra batteries		whistle to signal for help		specific items your family needs, such as prescription meds, eye glasses, hearing aid batteries non-perishable food 3-day supply include kitchen utensils and a can opener		sanitation & hygiene items toilet paper, moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties		local maps		an evacuation plan, so everyone knows where the emergency kits are located and where to go chargers and powerbank		matches in a waterproof container		pet items, including vet information list of hotels and boarding facilities that can take your pets	