Williamson County Emergency Management Launches Opt-in Text Service For Coronavirus Impact Updates

In an effort to provide a consolidated way for Williamson County residents to receive Coronavirus impact information, Williamson County Emergency Management has launched an opt-in text service for Williamson County Coronavirus updates.

To opt-in to the text update service, individuals can text keyword WCCOVID to 888-777.

The text service is free and will offer all the latest developments and impact information related to the ongoing public health emergency in Williamson County.

A few examples of what information residents can expect to receive after opting-in:

- Links to County and City facility closure lists
- Links to County and City event cancellation notices and updates
- Health reminders
- Newsflashes from the County and City regarding unforeseen impacts of the Coronavirus

Williamson County Emergency Management has also developed a page on its website with specific information regarding Coronavirus impacts at <http://www.williamsonready.org/266/Coronavirus-Disease>
