Below, you will find the final list of candidates whose bona fide status has been challenged for the May 3, 2022, primary election and the challenge has been upheld. Each of the State Executive Committees have gone through the appeal process from candidates that were challenged, and the list below represents the final decisions of the Republican State Executive Committee and the Democratic State Executive Committee. The respective political party has disqualified the candidates below:

Republican Party
County	Name of Candidate	Office Involved
Hawkins	Chuck Smith	Assessor of Property
Hawkins	Donald Curtis Taylor, Jr.	Road Superintendent
Henry	Tim Wirgau	County Mayor
Henry	Jeffery Baker	County Commissioner, District 2
Loudon	Amy Langley	County Clerk
Putnam	Dana Looper	Circuit Court Judge
Sumner	Jake Edgar	County Mayor
Sumner	April Baker	County Commissioner, District 10
Sumner	Jamie Teachenor	County Commissioner, District 14
Sumner	Winston Templett	County Commissioner, District 16
Sumner	Joshua Graham	County School Board Member, District 9

Democratic Party
County	Name of Candidate	Office Involved
Davidson	David G. Ridings	General Sessions Judge, Division VII
Davidson	Leroy "Johnny" Ellis	Chancellor, Chancery Court, Part III
Hamilton	George Ryan Love	County Clerk
Shelby	Roderic Ford	Trustee

Please review the lists above and adjust your ballot names accordingly. You may proceed with preparing your county ballot.

The lists above do not include any other challenges to a candidate's qualifications, such as residency. For other challenges to a candidate's qualifications, the outline included with this memo describes the process for the County Election Commission, along with Coordinator Goins, to review the challenge. The lists above only show the candidates who have been disqualified by the respective political party due to a lack of bona fide status under the rules/by-laws of the political party.

Thank you for your diligence and hard work in the election process. I appreciate you.
